HUDSON-FULTON CELEBRATION.

BOROUGH OF RICHMOND,
STATEN ISLAND

Saturday, September 25th, 1909.

This day being the day of the Naval Parade, the members of the Citizens' Committee, the invited guests, the patriotic societies of the Island, and those of the general public who wish to participate in the ceremonies will assemble on the Municipal Dock at Stapleton at nine (9) o'clock in the morning.

Addresses will be made, and those assembled will await the arrival of the "Half Moon" and the "Ulysses," which will drop anchor off the dock at Stapleton promptly at ten (10) o'clock.

At a given signal, the Reception Committee in its official launch will leave the dock, and accompanied by a large escort of steam launches, motor boats, rowboats, canoes, etc., all properly decorated, will pay its respects to the Commander of the Naval Parade, Captain Miller, and the Captain and officers of the "Half Moon" and the descendants and representatives of the Fulton and Livingston families on board of the "Ulysses."

On the return of the Reception Committee and its escort, the Citizens' Committee, the patriotic societies and invited guests will board the ferryboat "Manhattan" presumably at Stapleton, but possibly at St. George, for the purpose of taking part in the Great Naval Parade up the Bay and North River, and participating in the celebrations.

Arrangements for tickets of admission to the ferryboat "Manhattan" will be made by the committee, and tickets will in due time be sent to the invited guests and members of the Citizens' Committee.

During the celebration on the dock, either previous to or after the visit of the Reception Committee to the Half Moon and Clermont, addresses will be made by the Hon. George Cromwell, the Hon. Calvin D. Van Name, the Hon. Howard R. Bayne, Mr. Charles Barton, Mr. Ira K. Morris and Chairman Eugene Lamb Richards, Jr.

The management of affairs as regards Staten Island's participation in the Naval Parade will be in charge of MESSRS. LEWIS NIXON, WILLIAM HORN, PLINY E. DAVIS, WILLIAM J. DAVIDSON, and THOMAS A. FULTON.

In the evening there will be fireworks in different parts of Staten Island, and the Borough Hall will be appropriately illuminated during the week of the celebration. Red lights will be burnt from different high points on the Island, and the general public is invited to burn red lights promptly at nine (9) o'clock so that the whole Island may be illuminated at the same time.

Monday, September 27th, 1909.

On the forenoon of this day at ten (10) o'clock, the Great Historical Celebration at Stony Brook, on the Amboy Road between New Dorp and Oakwood, will take place, commemorative of the founding of the first church on Staten Island and the establishment of the County Seat at that place.

The Citizens' Committee, the patriotic societies, clergymen of all denominations, and invited guests will assemble at Stony Brook to take part in the ceremonies, which will include addresses by eminent speakers.

The arrangements will be in charge of MR. IRA K. MORRIS and the members of the Committee on History.

In the evening at eight o'clock the United German Singing Societies of Staten Island will give a large concert at Happyland, with the assistance of Madame Louise B. Voigt, soprano, with Mr. John Finnigan, a tenor, and the Damrosch Symphony Orchestra of New York.

Tuesday, September 28th, 1909.

There are no ceremonies scheduled for Staten Island on this date.

Wednesday, September 29th, 1909.

There are no ceremonies scheduled for Staten Island on this date.

Thursday, September 30th, 1909.

On the evening of this day, at seven thirty (7.30) o'clock, the Great Banquet will take place in the St. George Ferry Terminal Building.

The Citizens' Committee and invited guests, including the captains and officers of the foreign and United States Men-of-War, will attend, and addresses will be made by the Secretary of State, Hon. Philander C. Knox, Governor Charles E. Hughes, and Mayor George B. McClellan.

The dinner will be served by Mr. Hugo.

Music will be furnished by Mr. Franko's band.

Invitations to the dinner will be $10.00 a plate and will be issued by the Dinner Committee and all arrangements will be in charge of MR. JOHN T. MCKEE, Chairman; MR. GEORGE J. BENZIGER, Vice-Chairman, and the members of the Dinner Committee.

An elaborate souvenir menu will be given those attending the dinner.

Friday, October 1st, 1909.

The afternoon of this day will be devoted to the Great Children's Festival various centres on the Island and will consist of speeches and children's pageants, commemorative of the historical events of Staten Island. The Festival Song composed by WALTER COIT MOON will be sung, which song has been authorized by the Commission. The arrangements will be in charge of MR. RALPH MCKEE, Chairman, and members of the Committee on Children's Festival, MR. J. BLAKE HILLIER being in charge of the Children's Exercises.

The Festival Centres will be as follows:

October 1st, 1909.

VIEW OF THE HUDSON RIVER, FROM WEST POINT.

THE river scenery of America, the Hudson, at West Point, is the boldest and most beautiful. This powerful river writhes through the Highlands in abrupt curves, like the folds of a serpent. The different spurs of the mountains, which meet here, abut upon the stream in bold precipices, from five to fifteen hundred feet in height. On these the foliage hangs from base to summit, giving a greenish tinge to the dark water below, which, deprived of the slanting lights that brighten it elsewhere, flows on-

To the Public

On the evening of Saturday, September 25th, 1909 the first day of the Hudson Fulton Celebration, the Richmond Borough Hall will be ablaze with myriads of Electric Lights of various colors, Pavilion Hill will send forth a Welcome of unexcelled brilliancy to all the World and especially to all the visitors to our shores, and in order to make this occasion one to live in the minds of Staten Islanders, the Committee earnestly requests the co-operation of every citizen and resident of the Borough, by displaying and setting off Red Lights and Torches at 9 p. m. sharp.

The effect of this co-operation will make Staten Island an Island of Red Fire and those fortunate enough to witness this spectacle will remember it as long as they live.

These lights can be bought at the usual places where fireworks are kept and prices run as follows:

RED LIGHTS, lasting 5 minutes.....	10c
RED LIGHTS, lasting 10 minutes.....	25c
RED LIGHTS, (BAG) lasting 20 minutes.....	25c

My Dear Senator:-

At the request of Mr. James L. Clawson, Chairman of the English-Colonial Society, organized for the purpose of participating in the ceremonies of the Hudson-Fulton Celebration, has at the suggestion of Mr. Eugene Lamb Richards, Jr., Chairman of the Richmond Borough Citizens Committee requested me to ask you if you will honor us with your presence at the Celebration at the Municipal dock at Stapleton on the morning of Saturday, Sept. 25th, 1909, and if you will also accompany the reception Committee in the official launch when it pays its respects to the Captain and officers of the "Half Moon" and the descendants of Fulton and Livingston on board the "Clermont".

I am also requested to ask if you will consent to act as the orator in making some remarks commemorative of the history of the English Colonials on Staten Island.

Mr. Clawson desires me to state that he anticipates with a great deal of pleasure your acceptance of this invitation and it is needless for me to state that the writer voices the same sentiments.

The hour of meeting on the dock will be at nine o'clock in the morning and the visit to the "Half Moon" and "Clermont" will be between ten and ten thirty.

Respectfully,

Members of the Citizens Committee,

Dear Sir:-

Attention is drawn to the fact that those wishing to secure a Citizens Commemorative badge and button should send their order (excepted by a remittance of $1.40 to Mr. August Jacob, #488 Fifth Avenue, New York City, and those wishing to secure a medal should promptly send in their application accompanied by a check for $4.00 to Mr. Edward D. Adams, #71 Broadway, New York City.

It is expected that the badges and the medals will be issued not in the next day or two, but as the first celebration of Hudson Day will take place on Saturday, September 25th, those wishing to receive badges or medals, or both, should not delay their application.

You are respectfully reminded of the request of the Committee on Education, that each member of the Committee, as well as many of his friends and neighbors as possible, should burn a light, shortly after nine o'clock in the evening of Saturday, September 25th, 1909.

Respectfully,

Cornelius G. Kolff,
